

Florida Divorce Checklist

Use this checklist to organize key information and documents before filing for divorce or responding to a divorce case in Florida.

Personal Information

Identification and Contact Information

- Full legal names
- Current addresses
- Phone numbers
- Email addresses
- Dates of birth
- Social Security numbers
- Driver's license or ID information

Marriage Information

- Date of marriage
- Date of separation, if applicable
- Prenuptial or postnuptial agreements
- Prior court orders or legal agreements

Financial Documents

Income Records

- Recent pay stubs
- W-2 forms
- Tax returns
- 1099 forms
- Business income records
- Bonus or commission records

Bank and Investment Accounts

- Checking account statements
- Savings account statements
- Investment account statements
- Brokerage account statements

- Cryptocurrency records, if applicable

Retirement Accounts

- 401(k) statements
- IRA statements
- Pension information
- Deferred compensation records

Debts and Liabilities

- Credit card statements
- Mortgage balances
- Personal loan records
- Student loan records
- Vehicle loan records
- Medical debt records

Property and Assets

Real Estate

- Home deeds
- Mortgage documents
- Property tax records
- Home appraisals
- Rental property records

Vehicles

- Vehicle titles
- Registration documents
- Loan information
- Estimated vehicle values

Other Assets

- Business ownership records
- Jewelry or collectibles
- Life insurance policies
- Valuable personal property inventory

- Other significant assets

Children (If Applicable)

School and Medical Information

- School schedules
- Childcare information
- Medical records
- Health insurance information

Parenting Schedules

- Current parenting routine
- Holiday schedule
- Extracurricular activity schedule
- Transportation arrangements

Child-Related Expenses

- Tuition records
- Daycare costs
- Medical expenses
- Extracurricular costs
- Insurance premiums

Goals and Considerations

Parenting Goals

- Preferred time-sharing schedule
- School stability priorities
- Communication expectations
- Decision-making preferences

Financial Priorities

- Budget concerns
- Whether to keep or sell the home
- Spousal support considerations
- Retirement concerns
- Debt allocation priorities

Prepared for informational purposes by Sasso Guerrero & Henderlite. This checklist is not legal advice and does not replace case-specific guidance from a Florida family law attorney.